Curriculum Overview MATHS GEOGRAPHY Area and multiplication and division Climate Zones and Biomes This term, pupils will analyse graphs to compare climates across different countries by viewing the average rainfall and This term students will be discovering how to measure area using manipulatives and hands temperature. They will also understand and recognise the six on experience. They will also begin learning how to use the operations of multiplication and major biomes and how they are affected by climate as well as division. They will understand how to multiply 2, 3- and 4-digit numbers using the column threats to the Aquatic biome. method as well as how to use long division. PE ENGLISH PSHE Art and DT Rugby / Football How to follow a The Village recipe THE GREAT Students will work on their Caring friendship relationships defending, attacking passing and Students will understand how to receiving skills through the sports This term in PSHE, children will create a recipe, a of rugby football and others. In English this term, the be exploring the theme of budget and how to Students will learn the basics of Pupils' will be writing playscripts and poems this term using children will exploring 'The being a good friend and follow a simply movement and how to move the 'The Great Kapok Tree'. They will also be writing Village That Vanished'. They identifying what loss can feel recipe by the end of safely. balanced arguments to identify different viewpoints. will be able to use their skills like. They will learn ways to the term with the from Autum Term 1 to write overcome loss and jealousy. chance at creating diary entries and their own biscuits! monologues.

How do we know what is right and wrong?

RE

This term, children will be exploring the big question of what is right and wrong. They will investigate how believers use religion to guide their morality and duty. They will be comparing the values, beliefs and teachings from the holy texts.

SPANISH	COMPUTING
Let's go!	Coding – Pupils' will be creating a simple
This term, children will learn to develop	computer programme using free code gibbon.
their conversational skills via some new	They will understand computer selection in topics: transport, direction and	coding.

movement.

In Music they are exploring the recorder instrument and learning different notes in order to play a song.

SCIENCE Living things and

This term, children wil be exploring changes in the environment and their effects on the living organisms that live there. They will be looking at animals in food chains and learning how to construct a variety of food chains.

Habitats

MUSIC

Percussion