

Governor Information 2023-2024

Cynthia Allen – Chair of Governors, Parent Governor

Kimara Meredith-Poleon – Vice Chair, Parent Governor

Alan McDougall – Co-opted

Alan has been Chair of Leopold Primary School since January 2021. Alan is recently retired, having been a teacher for over 35 years and formally a Headteacher of a local Brent primary school. Wishing to continue to serve the local community, Alan is relishing sharing his educational experience and working alongside other Governors and school leaders at Leopold. Alan is currently also Vice Chair of Governors at Mitchell Brook Primary. To contact the chair of governors directly, please e mail: chair@leopold.brent.sch.uk

Zac Newman, LA Governor

Zac is a freelance teacher of mindfulness. Until August he worked in a large secondary school in Ealing, teaching mathematics and religious studies, and overseeing a cohort of 200 students. The students completed their GCSE exams and went in different directions, which seemed the natural time for something new. Zac's experience of pastoral work in school informs the safeguarding aspects of his role. His teaching experience informs the work of the Curriculum, Standards and Personnel committee. Zac has been a governor since March 2017.

Alex Kyles-Brown, Co-opted

Alex is a Physics teacher and Head of Science at a North London senior school. He has taught in state and independent schools over the last 15 years. Alex sits on the Finance and Premises Committee, and the Pay Committee.

Lauren Haringman, Co-opted

Lauren Haringman is a supply and logistics professional currently working in a strategic role at the retail group Kingfisher PLC. Lauren is married and lives in the borough of Brent with her husband and rescue cat Miso. She was appointed as a co-opted governor at Leopold September 2020, sitting on the Finance and Premises committee.

Rohan Sakhrani – Chair of Finance, Co-opted

Tom Masters, Co-opted

Tom is currently finishing up his studies before commencing a training contract at an international law firm at the beginning of 2021. Before moving to London, he taught at a large primary school in East Kent for 4 years. He sits on the Curriculum, Standards and Personnel committee and focuses on the school's SEND and Pupil Premium provision.
